A FAMILY BUSINESS

Mel Shipley set up his driving instruction business, 'Melsway', back in 1991. Over the years his reputation has grown, and he has reluctantly had to turn potential clients away or pass them on to others. His daughter Sally joined him as his business partner in October 2012, after qualifying as an instructor.

He says, 'Now that Sally is working with me, if I can't fit someone in around my busy work schedule then I pass them on to Sally and likewise if Sally can't fit someone in she passes them to me. I have found Sally has been an asset to the business and I'm pleased and proud to have her working with and alongside me.'

Mel works mostly Monday to Friday 9 to 5 but still does some evenings and Saturdays. Having two young children, Sally works less hours and her work is mostly on Saturdays, Sundays, the occasional evening and now that her children go to school and playschool she also does the occasional lesson during school hours.

Most of their work is through 'word of mouth' from satisfied and successful clients.

You may have noticed two different cars bearing the 'Melsway' sign around the village, well this explains why!

AN AMAZING EVENT! Ratby Family take the Guide Promise.

Ann Downs, Bardon Division Commissioner was present at Ratby Brownies on Tuesday November 4th. She came specially to hear the Guide Promise from three members of one family, a very unusual occurrence.

Mum, Clare Henderson, Tawny Owl, has become a Brownie leader after seeing the article in Wot! calling for volunteers to keep the group open. She had previously been involved in the group as a parent helper when her daughter joined Brownies years ago.

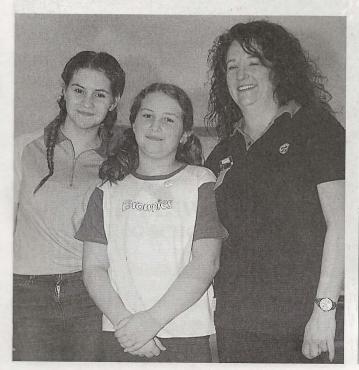

Daughter Jessica, 15, made her promise as a young leader, Sooty Owl, and younger daughter Isabelle, aged 9, made her promise as a member of the group.

During the evening the Brownies practiced marching and Standard bearing in readiness for the village Remembrance Parade, as well as enjoying some lively games.

The group is thriving, meeting at 6.15 on Tuesday evenings in Ratby Church Rooms. Snowy Owl, Angie Cain, who became involved in the group after just one visit in July tells us that there are plans to start a Rainbows section for younger girls.

Check out the inspiring Guide website for more information about guiding; www.girlguiding.org.uk

RATBY APPLE DAY

This year's Apple Day on Sunday October 12th was a great success. A good crowd turned out to enjoy a range of activities and games, all with an apple theme.

New for this year was the popular 'Human Fruit Machine' and an opportunity to have your face painted.

There was apple pressing and juicing to get involved with, using new equipment purchased with a grant from The Central England Cooperative Community Fund. Everyone enjoyed apple peeling and coring, the William Tell archery game and the 'apple tree hunt.' There was a display of apples from the orchard for tasting.

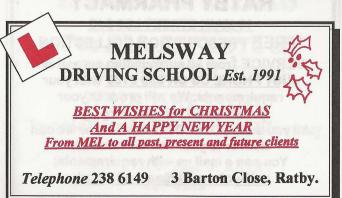

Everyone was invited to draw an apple, as part of the annual Big Draw festival.

Members of Ratby Junior Band entertained us, another first! And Neill Talbot, Senior Conservation Officer brought along a display from Leicestershire and Rutland Wildlife Trust.

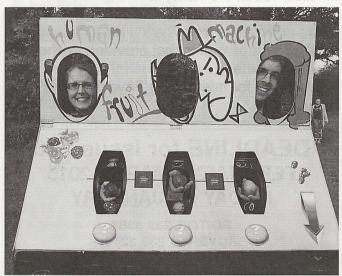

Neill has helped us with our Pond dipping for many years.

The refreshment team were kept busy selling teas, coffees and home- made apple cakes. The group have already started planning next year's event!

An Apology or Two.

In issue 168 in the Ratby Show article we inadvertently stated that "folk could enjoy a cup of tea and a cake from the WI refreshment stall". The stall was in fact provided by the show committee.

Apology too for misspelling Faye Steven's name.

VILLAGE SHOW

Ratby's Annual Show August 8th 2015

If you, like a good many folk, are not looking forward to the winter, with its cold days and dark nights; take heart! Use this precious time to take stock of your garden. Look through your seed catalogues and decide on the plants you would like to grow, and which to enter in the annual show. The usual classes will be featured again, including the popular floral and cookery sections, along with handicrafts and young people's classes - in fact, something for everyone.

The 'Show Girls' welcome you to Ratby Sports Club on August 8th to join in the fun - and fun it is! Have a go - you have nothing to lose!
